

About Kandie Smith

Kandie Smith earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology from Charleston Southern University. She is currently a Residential Director for ReStart Behavioral Health. Her past work experience includes being an Executive Team Leader of Assets Protection for Target, and a Senior Staff Instructor for the Crisis Prevention Institute. She has tirelessly served the community through her sorority, Greenville NC Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., League of Women Voters, Greenville Get Out To Vote Coalition, the City of Greenville Neighborhood Advisory Board, and has served as Logistics Chair of the American Heart Association's Heart Walk.

Kandie is an energetic, creative problem solver. As the oldest of four siblings, she exudes strength and character and is accustomed to taking on challenges, solving problems and demonstrating leadership. As a Senior Staff Instructor with the Crisis Prevention Institute, Kandie traveled the world providing counsel to companies by training staff in crisis management, prevention and resolution. She listens to people; she learns what and where the resources are to help in any situation; she's a lifelong learner and is passionate about everything she undertakes.

On the other hand, Kandie enjoys socializing and interacting with peers and youth. Her sports accomplishments include serving as Head Basketball Coach for the South Central Junior Varsity Girls' Basketball Team and East Carolina Women's Club Basketball Team in Greenville simultaneously for three years running. She was instrumental in coaching an AAU Basketball Team as well as a recreational league. She enjoys having fun and serving as a positive influence for today's young women. Kandie is an active member of York Memorial AME Zion Church in Greenville, and is involved in church activities. In addition, she regularly provides leadership and other tangible contributions on behalf of the community. "Being All You Can Be is an everyday reality for Kandie!"

"With Kandie, We Kan Do More!"
