

REQUEST FOR LETTERS OF INTEREST (RFLOI)

As the Lead Planning Agency for the Greenville Urban Area Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO), the City of Greenville, NC, is seeking letters of interest from qualified engineering and/or planning firms interested in providing integrated mobility, multimodal, and transit planning services. We are seeking qualified professional service firms necessary to develop the Greenville Area Transit Integrated Mobility & Enhancement Plan.

Services will include but not be limited to 1) identify and address unmet needs of the community, while including an overview of the university, hospital, and rural general public transit systems for feasibility of coordination and/or consolidation; 2) provide a guide for improvements with the efficiency and effectiveness of service delivery, including route expansions/modifications; 3) guide how to integrate the transit improvement options as part of the new Complete Streets policy, NCDOT's project prioritization process, among others.

Interested firms are invited to submit letters of interest only electronically and (in the required quantity and format) by no later than 5:00PM on May 3, 2021, to the following address: RMayers@greenvillenc.gov

For questions or to obtain a complete version of the Request for Proposals, contact Ryan Mayers at RMayers@greenvillenc.gov or visit: <http://www.greenvillenc.gov/government/financial-services/current-bid-opportunities>
