

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR, CITY OF GREENVILLE

Proclamation

WHEREAS, domestic violence is widespread and affects over 4 million Americans each year;

WHEREAS, historically and presently women have been and continue to be victims of domestic violence. We in Greenville are committed to restoring our first civil right — the right to freedom from fear in our own homes;

WHEREAS, the problems of domestic violence are not confined to any group or groups of people but cross all economic, racial, affectional preference, and social barriers;

WHEREAS, the crime of domestic violence violates an individual's privacy, dignity, security, and humanity, due to systematic use of physical, emotional, sexual, psychological, and economic control and/or abuse;

WHEREAS, no one person, organization, agency or community can eliminate domestic violence on their own—we must work together to educate our entire population about what can be done to prevent such violence, support victims/survivors and their families, and increase support for agencies providing services to those community members;

WHEREAS, Domestic Violence Awareness Month provides an excellent opportunity for citizens to learn more about preventing domestic violence and to gain knowledge of the numerous organizations and individuals who provide critical advocacy, services and assistance to victims;

WHEREAS, the Center for Family Violence Prevention will host a press conference and vigil on Thursday, October 21, 2010, at 10:30 a.m. in the City of Greenville Council Chambers, Third Floor of City Hall, 200 West Fifth Street". The press conference will address the effects of domestic violence in the community; and

WHEREAS, the vigil will recognize those whose lives have been taken by domestic violence in Pitt County from the year 2000 to the present.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Patricia C. Dunn, Mayor of the City of Greenville, North Carolina, do hereby proclaim the month of October, 2010 as in Greenville and urge all citizens to actively participate in the efforts to end violence in our homes and communities.

This 1st day of October, 2010.

Patricia C. Dunn, Mayor
