

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR, CITY OF GREENVILLE

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the City of Greenville will celebrate its first Neighborhood Symposium Day which will be held Saturday, October 30, 2010 from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers, Third Floor of City Hall, 200 West Fifth Street;

WHEREAS, at this event, there will be information regarding leadership, public safety, community appearance, land use and city services;

WHEREAS, the Neighborhood Symposium Day is sponsored by the City of Greenville Neighborhood Advisory Board and the Human Relations Council; and

WHEREAS, the primary objective of Neighborhood Symposium Day is the maintenance of livable and sustainable neighborhoods through: increased citizen participation in private community programs and local government, facilitation of existing and new neighborhood associations, improvements in the physical appearance of residential areas, support of crime prevention efforts through environmental and urban design strategies and encouragement of effective community watch programs, mitigation of negative environmental impacts affecting quality of life, and partnerships in, and support of ongoing public and private efforts to revitalize Greenville's Uptown area.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Patricia C. Dunn, Mayor of the City of Greenville, North Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 30, 2010 as in Greenville and urge all citizens to support efforts to improve and protect our neighborhoods.

NEIGHBORHOOD SYMPOSIUM DAY

This 30th day of October, 2010.

Patricia C. Dunn, Mayor