Paint in the Park!

En Plein Air Event at the Greenville Town Common

105 E. 1st Street, Greenville, NC

En plein air

(French pronunciation: [ãplɛn ɛ:ʁ])
(plān'âr', plē-něr')

- 1: of or relating to painting in outdoor daylight
- 2: of or relating to a branch of impressionism that attempts to represent outdoor light and air
- 3: open-air : outdoor

We invite you to participate in a free en plein air event called Paint in the Park. Come join us in a relaxed, creative, and natural setting at the Town Common. This is an experience that can't be beat!

Let us get a brush in your hand!

Artists must bring their own supplies
(paint, canvas/paper, easel, and chair if needed).

The event is free but registration is encouraged:

TREAD Lightly Awareness

In the TREAD Lightly Awareness session, participants will learn about outdoor stewardship, ethics, and human behavior, as they influence our perspectives in the outdoors. As participants learn about these influences, they will also learn how to minimize their impacts on the environment during recreational activities using the TREAD Lightly principles and practices. Upon completing this session, all participants will be certified in the completion of the TREAD Lightly Awareness Program.

453026.01 Wednesday March 22 10:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

TRACK and Hike

In this session, participants will learn about local animals and how to identify them by their footprints. We will also hike the TRACK Trail, and other trails with staff to discover tracks and make observations about animal behavior.

453026.02 Wednesday April 26 10:00a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Leave No Trace Awareness

In the Leave No Trace Awareness session, participants will take a deeper look into outdoor stewardship and ethics, as participants learn how to minimize their impacts on the environment during backcountry activities, such as camping, hiking, and other activities using the Leave No Trace principles and practices. Upon completing this session, all participants will be certified in the completion of the Leave No Trace Awareness Program.

453026.03 Wednesday May 24 10:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Mammalogy

We will discuss what mammals live in Eastern North Carolina and which ones can be found in the park, then head out on the trail to see if we can find any mammals or signs of where they have been.

453029.01 Wednesday March 1 10:00 a.m.–11:30 a.m.

Geology

Many people think of places like the Grand Canyon when they hear about “geology”, but there is a lot of geological importance right here in Greenville! We’ll go over some geology facts and then search for any clues about the past. We may even find some shark teeth...

453029.02 Wednesday March 15 10:00 a.m.–11:30 a.m.

Ornithology

Birds are one of the best types of animals to study in parks because it seems like they’re always out! Let’s discuss some of the different features of birds and what types of birds live in/visit Wildwood Park.

453029.03 Wednesday April 5 10:00 a.m.–11:30 a.m.

Ichthyology

Ichthyology is the study of fish. There are plenty of different types of fish in the lake at Wildwood as well in the Tar River. We’ll talk about our various freshwater fish species, play Backyard Bass, and see if we can hook into anything with a rod & reel! *Maximum number of participants is 12.

453029.04* Wednesday April 19 10:00 a.m.–11:30 a.m.

Dendrology

Wildwood Park is home to many species of trees. After a discussion about trees, we’ll test your tree identification knowledge out on the trail and learn about some of the common tree species in the park.

453029.05 Wednesday May 3 10:00 a.m.–11:30 a.m.

Herpetology

Eastern North Carolina has a rich and diverse population of reptile and amphibian life. Join us as we explore the park in search of snakes, turtles, frogs, toads, lizards, skinks, and salamanders.

453029.06 Wednesday May 17 10:00 a.m.–11:30 a.m.
