

Pursuing a United Neighborhood: Lessons from Resident-Leaders

Melissa Tilley Glen Arthur Neighborhood Association

Vince Bellis College Court-Coghill Neighborhood Association

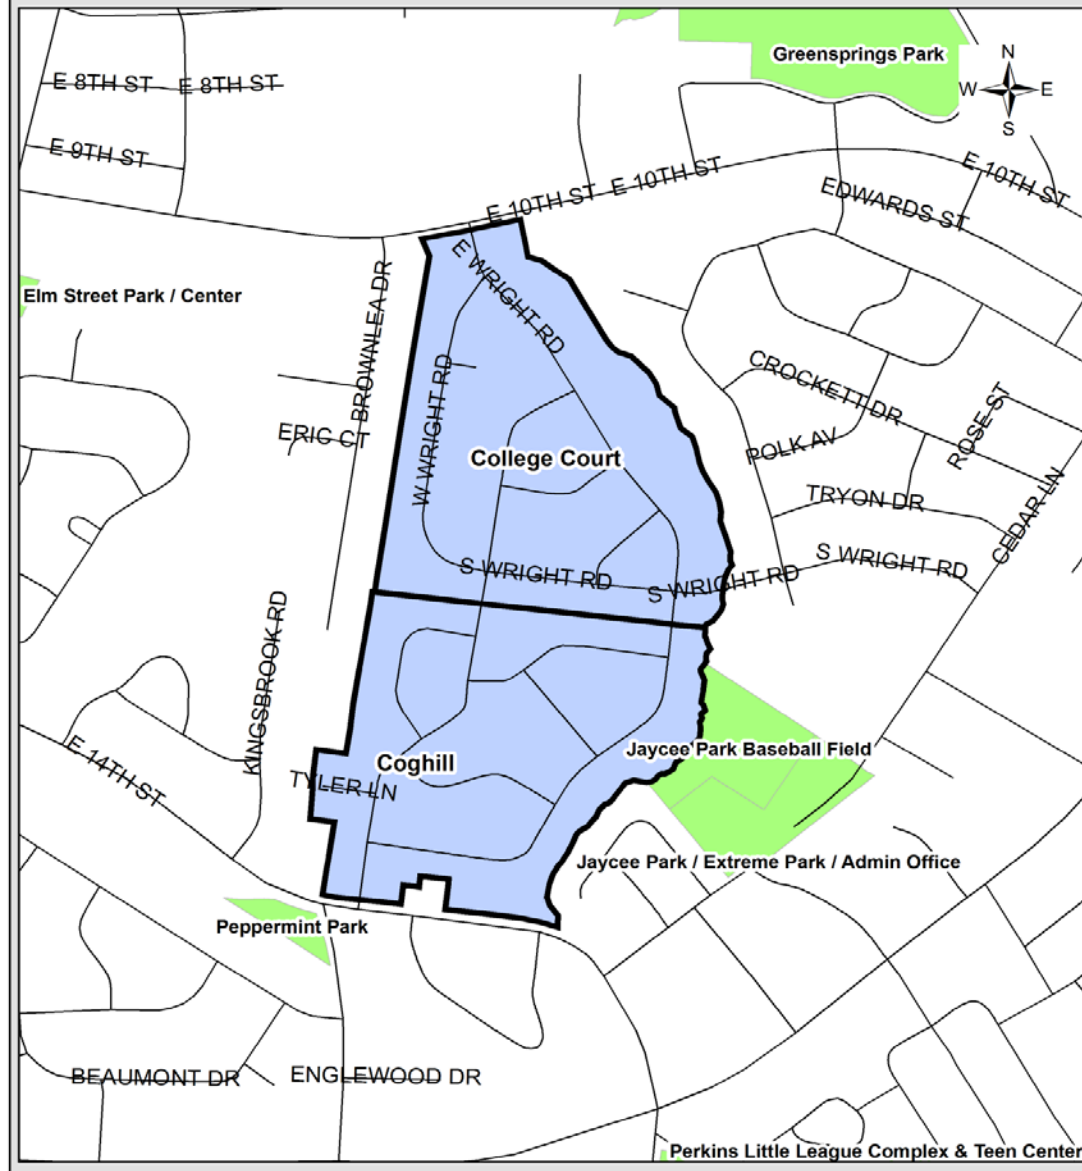

Joni Torres Pitt County Health Department

Terry Shank Drexelbrook/Oakmont Neighborhood Association

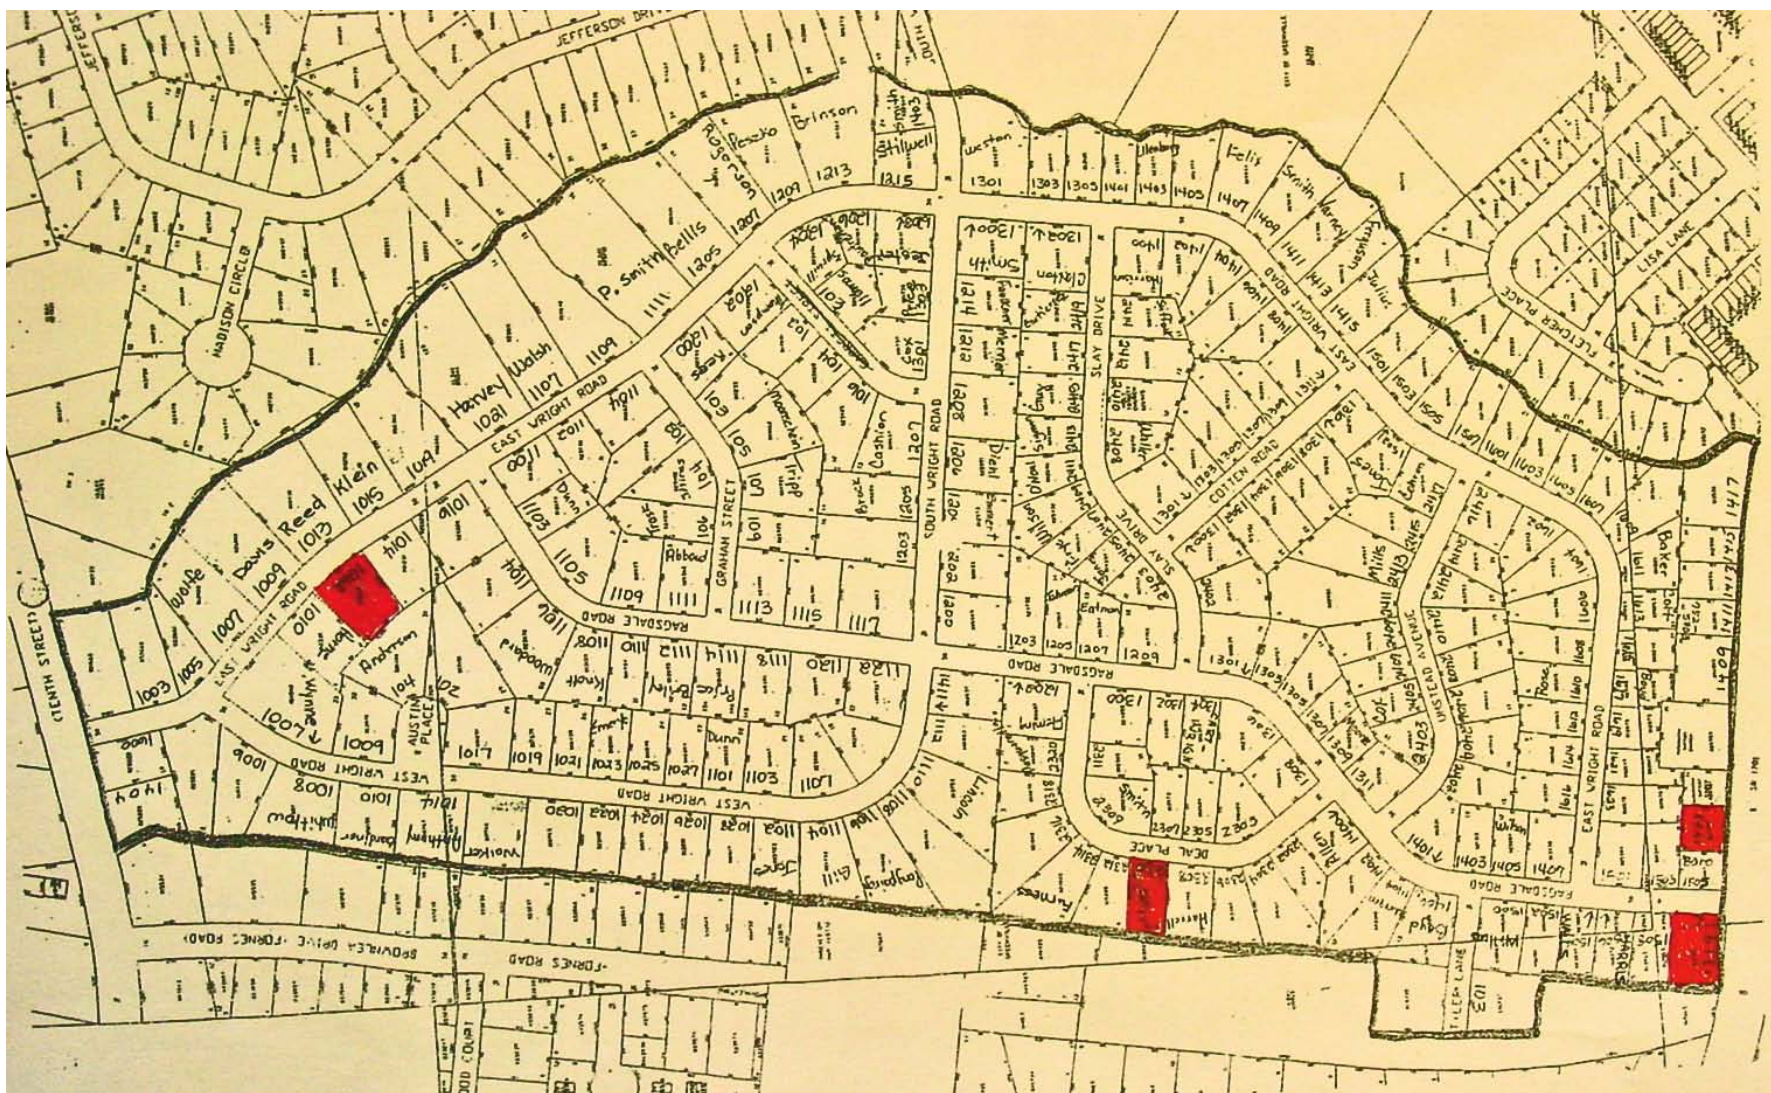

OUR LOGO

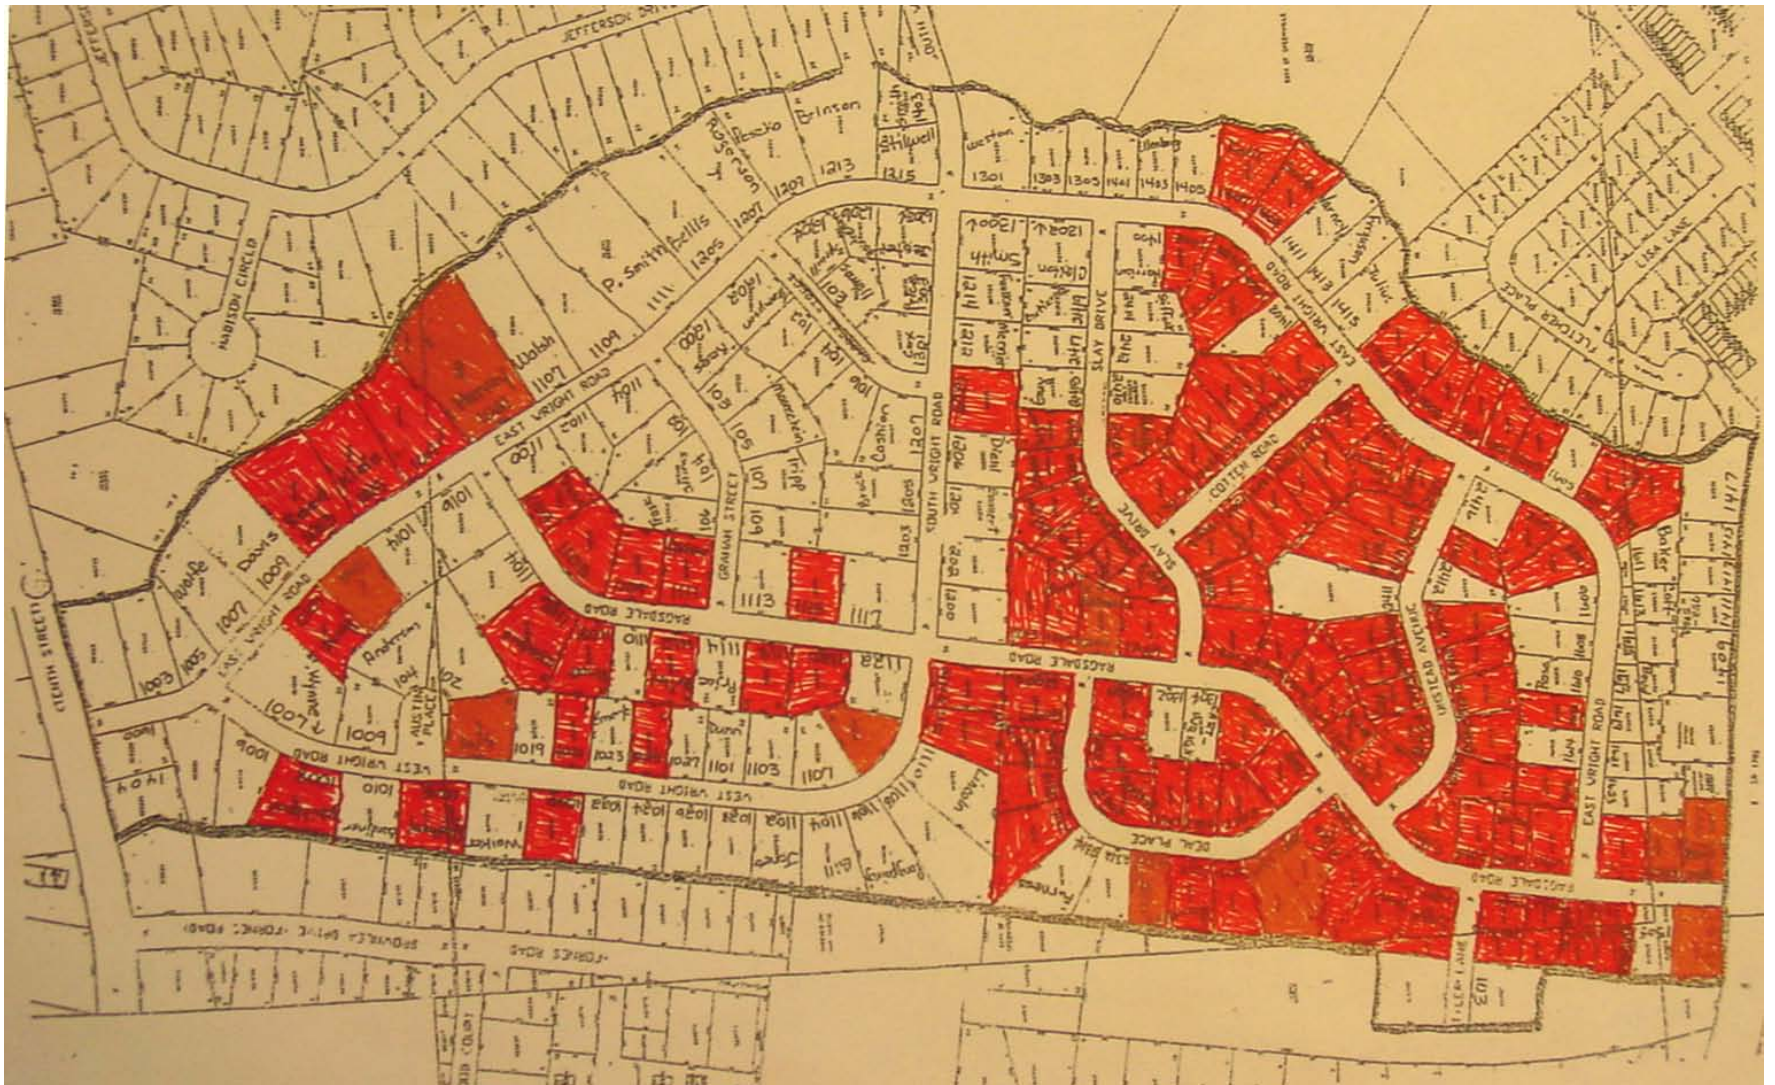

Cogcourt/College Hill Neighborhood

250 HOUSES

1950

1965

CCCNA

Hello Vincent
Logout | Your Profile

Welcome

Home
About Us
Contact Us
Join CCCNA

CCCNA

Neighborhood Alert
Upcoming Events
Newsletter
Local Resources
Board/Committees
Neighborhood History
Bylaws and Minutes

Welcome

CONTENTS ON THIS PAGE - Scroll Down last update May 8, 2011

SPRING PICNIC
PLANT A TREE
10th. STREET VISIBILITY IMPROVED
FALL PICNIC PHOTOS
FOURTH OF JULY FLAGS PHOTO
SPRING PICNIC PHOTOS

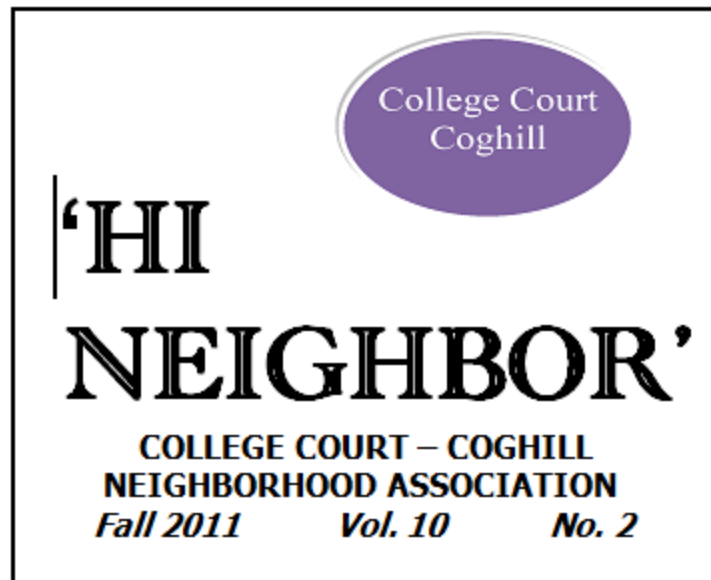

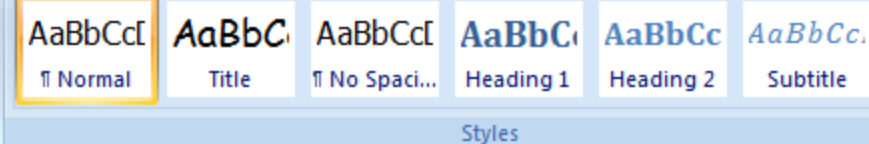

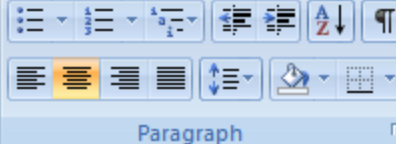

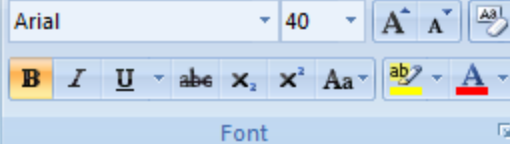

WELCOME to the College Court - Coghill Neighborhood Website
Do You Have An Announcement? E-mail it to corqys@suddenlink.net

SPRING PICNIC
Lt. Cheryl Curtis,

As a member of the College Court Coghill neighborhood association I wanted to thank you. We all appreciate you and the other officers who took time out to talk with our group about crime and the many ways to keep our homes and neighborhoods safe. Thank you also for the crime update in and around the neighborhood. Your professionalism and courtesy made us very proud of the Greenville police department.

We all look forward to seeing you again at our fall picnic which is usually in September or October. I will email you with date and time once we have it planned.

Again thank you Carolyn Anthony CCCNA Social Committee

Fall Picnic

Mark your calendar today!

Saturday, November 20

Austin Place

Picnic at 1 pm

Moonwalk 11am -4 pm

Jim Brown, the Clown 2 - 3 pm

Dogs & burgers provided

IN THIS ISSUE:

Annual Membership Meeting and Election

Commander Mike Gilchrist, NCHP

Blah, Blah, Blah – CCCNA President's Letter

Bicycle Lane on East 10th Street

CCCNA Yards of Distinction

My Street Name: Austin Place

CCCNA Continues Website in 2011

Streets Clean-up

Treasurer's Report

Resource for Newcomers

CCCNA Officers

Annual Membership Meeting and Election

Thursday, November 18th, 7 PM at J - C Park
Auditorium

Election of Officers for 2011

Program: "From grass to trees: care of your yard and garden."

Sue King, Master Gardener

Commander Mike Gilchrist, NCHP

Do you remember when NC Highway patrolman, Carl Gilchrist, was our neighbor on East Wright Road? His son, Mike, attended school with children of College Court Coghill residents. Well, Mike has fallen in love

My Street Name: Austin Place

Our neighborhood remained mostly farmland until after World War II. Renewed growth of East Carolina Teacher's College in the 1950s generated a demand for new homes near the college. This demand was met by development of two new subdivisions a mile east of the school: Coghill and College Court. Both subdivisions were intended to attract college faculty and prominent Greenville citizens. For this reason, all of the streets in these two subdivisions were named in honor of individuals who contributed to the early development of 'ECTC'.

Herbert E. Austin (1866 – 1929) was among the first four faculty members selected by President R.E. Wright in 1909. H.E. Austin, a Vermont native, had been a friend of Wright when both studied the 'progressive new' methods of public school teaching then being developed at the Maryland State Normal School. Herbert Austin was named director of the Science Department. By 1919 the college was providing teachers throughout much of eastern North Carolina. These teachers maintained contact with their mentors and college faculty were serving, in the words of Austin, as "consulting engineers" by providing educational advice to area schools and helping to solve community problems.

An 'Administrative Building', completed during 1908, served as administrative offices and classrooms. It remained unnamed until about 1930 when Pres. Wright was authorized to assign names associated with school founders to existing buildings. This was accomplished without official sanction or ceremony. After 1930 the Administration Building became known as 'Austin'. Sometime during the 1950s the legislature authorized the formative years 1907-1982.*

*East Carolina University

CCCNA Continues Website in 2011

<http://www.mycccna.com>

CCCNA has renewed its website for another year. Frankly, our website is not being used effectively. Many neighbors are still not aware that it exists, and it is not updated frequently.

We have gotten a good response to our 'Alert List' when important information needs to be communicated to the neighborhood. Please add your name to the Alert List during the Fall Picnic or send it to corgys@suddenlink.net.

Your webmaster will try to do a better job of keeping the website current in 2011. We'll have more photos. You can help by logging on to the website and completing the user profile. Unless you specify otherwise, this will add your name to the Alert List. You can also help by submitting neighborhood notices, yard sales, items to trade or give away, lost pets, baby sitting or pet sitting, etc.

The homepage introduces newcomers to our neighborhood with informative links to community resources. You can read about the history of the College Court – Coghill neighborhood, find out who owns a specific property, or find the zoning classification of your home.

OPEN and EXPLORE our website.

Streets Clean-up

There seems to be more trash along the streets in the CCCNA neighborhood. As a resident, I would like to

FALL PICNIC

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8

11 am until 2 pm, eat at Noon

AUSTIN PLACE

Featuring a Moonwalk for the kids.

Grilled hamburgers and hot dogs will be provided.

Please bring a covered dish, drinks, and a chair.

QUESTIONS? contact Mark at 355-7010 or Renee at renee.harrell@craven.k12.nc.us

RAIN DATE !!!!!

There are no plans for an alternate date in the event of inclement weather.

Neighbors who have listed their e-mail addresses with Vince Bellis will be informed of any cancellation by e-mail.

If we have a current e-mail address for you, you will receive a copy of this flyer by e-mail.

If you receive this flyer by home delivery (only), we do not have an e-mail address for you.

You can add your name and e-mail address to the CCCNA 'Alert List' by sending the above formation to corgys@suddenlink.net

POLICE VISIT PICNIC

THE MAYOR TESTS THE SLIDE

*Yard
of Distinction*

CCCNA

Yard
of Distinction
CCCNA

THE CORNER OF E. WRIGHT AND 10th STREET WAS A KUDZU JUNGLE BEFORE NEIGHBORS CLEANED IT UP

Fruit Trees

on city-owned lots

First & Jarvis streets

Maintained by the Tar River-University
neighborhood & friends

