

IMAGINE! UNITED NEIGHBORHOODS

A Symposium Sponsored by the Neighborhood Advisory Board

9:00AM – 2:00PM Saturday, May 4, 2013
Greenville City Hall

Symposium Moderator - Seth Laughlin, Planner II
City of Greenville, Community Development Department

AGENDA

- 8:15AM Registration - City Hall Main Foyer 1st Floor
Continental Breakfast - Gallery Area 3rd Floor
- 9:00 AM - 9:15AM Welcome - Ann Maxwell, Chair Neighborhood Advisory Board
Sacred Moment – Blythe Tennent
The Honorable Allen Thomas - Mayor City of Greenville
- 9:15AM - 9:45AM Keynote Speaker - History of the Town Common,
Roger Kammerer, Local Artist, Historian, & Genealogist
- 9:45AM - 10:25AM Update on Proposed Transportation Center - Chris Padgett, Assistant City Manager
- 10:15AM - 10:20AM Break ~ Door Prizes
- 10:30AM - 11:15AM Policing Neighborhoods! What innovations are planned? - Police Chief Hassan Aden
- 11:15AM - 11:45AM Panel “Picture This – Greenville”- Kelsey Morrow [ECU], Panel Interviewer
Power Point Presentations/Q & A
- Caroline Doherty - Forest Hill
 - Betty Hines – Greenbrier
 - Sharon Stang – Carolina East
- 11:45AM - 12:30PM LUNCH - NAB Elections – Door Prizes
Gallery Area 3rd Floor
- 12:30PM - 1:00PM Moving toward Effective Communication and Cooperation between Homeowners and Renters: The Model - Sedge-Field Apts. & Williamsburg Manor
Captain Cecil J Hardy, GPD Retired & Johann Bleicher Retired
- Presentation of Safety Awards to representatives from Sedge-Field Apartments and Williamsburg Manor
- 1:00PM - 1:45PM Building Neighborhood Dialogue: Opportunities to interact with Immigrant Communities Dr. Hur Misan & Juvencio Rocha Peralta
- 1:45 PM - 2:00PM Door Prizes, Wrap-up and Thank You, Ann Maxwell

The neighborhood symposium committee members donated their personal funds to present a monetary donation to the keynote speaker. All funds donated from vendors were used strictly for the neighborhood symposium and is considered a charitable donation that does not infer any right or benefit from the City of Greenville.